

42 reasons to volunteer with Girlguiding

1  To find friendships

2  To belong to a national community

3 To have

To give back 4

5 To take part in  international opportunities

6 To help provide safe spaces for girls

7 To undertake leadership training

8  To work with girls and young women

9  To make positive change

10 To develop new skills

11  To take on creative and challenging opportunities

12  To help girls reach new opportunities

13  To work to improve your community

14  To encourage girls into STEM activities

To help girls build confidence 15

16  To help offer new challenges

To be part of something inclusive - where all girls and women are welcomed 17

18  To get involved in all the big conversations

19  To remind girls they are without limits!

To inspire girls to take on new adventures 20

21  To be a proud supporter of our LGBTQ+ community

42 reasons to volunteer with Girlguiding

To take part in once in a lifetime opportunities

22

23

To be part of a larger feminist organisation and movement

To bring joy and excitement to young people

24

25

To have adventures

26

To celebrate diversity

27

To take action for topics you're passionate about

28

To help encourage girls into sports

29

To help break gender stereotypes

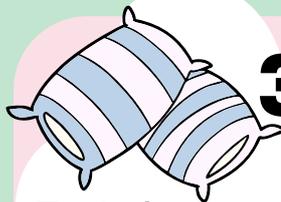

30

To develop your own self-confidence

31

To break boundaries

32

To take part in sleepovers and trips away

33

To discover new talents and strengths within

34

To support positive mental health

35

To benefit from partnerships with global organisations

36

To find new challenges

37

To learn to take the lead

38

To bring people together

39

To find personal growth

40

To put smiles on girls' faces

41

To develop new interests

42

To boost your CV

