At Girlguiding, we help all girls know they can do anything.

They go to their first ever sleepover, canoe on rivers, learn about body confidence, and lead their own camp. Or sometimes they simply have fun and try new things with friends.

We are able to deliver these adventures and opportunities to girls in the Anglia region due to the dedication and support of our amazing family of volunteers.

However, with more than 15,000 girls waiting to join units we need more volunteers to offer their time, skills and support to help grow guiding throughout our region.

Join our growing family of volunteers.

Give time to make guiding happen

No matter how much time you have to give, there's an opportunity for someone who's as awesome as you.

Why volunteer?

Volunteering with us isn't just about campfires and helping girls to get their next badge - although those are special moments. It's about empowering girls and giving them new experiences. It's helping girls realise their own potential. You can develop your skills, all whilst having the time of your life.

"Volunteering is just about believing in yourself, being the best you can be. Being a leader has shown me more and more of that every day."

Emma, Queen's Guide and assistant Rainbow leader

Who can volunteer?

Anyone! There's no requirement to have been involved in guiding before, and we've got lots of opportunities for young people and male members too in supporting roles.

Becoming a role model doesn't need a full-time commitment - there are all sorts of flexible ways to get involved.

Whether you want to help behind the scenes, at special events, or get involved every week, there's loads of ways to inspire girls with Girlguiding.

What roles are there?

You choose the volunteer role that matches your skills and time available. You can be a leader, a helper, a treasurer, fundraiser, administrator, trainer, the list goes on and on...

Leaders

As a leader, you'll support the unit, lead a team of volunteers, and plan and deliver a programme of awesome activities. You'll be supported to complete our leader development programme, gaining qualifications along the way.

Supporting roles

These roles are perfect for you if you can't give time every week, want to help casually or are keen to share a specific skill or passion. This can be anything from camping or football through to photography or managing a shop!

Unit helpers

Lots of new volunteers start out as a helper at regular unit meetings. You'll work alongside other volunteers to give girls fun, friendship, challenge and adventure. There's no responsibility for planning in this role but you'll be a much needed extra pair of hands.

Young leaders

Support your community and have loads of fun by being a young volunteer.

Meet Emma

"We are incredible because we give girls and young women the chance to do things they wouldn't usually get to do."

How to apply?

1

Register your interest

Fill out our online form and register your details. We need to know where you are based and how we can contact you.

2

We'll be in touch

A volunteer from the Girlguiding team in your area will contact you for a chat. Whilst you're waiting, why not check out our website?

3

Tell us what you want to do

During this chat let us know about your skills and how much time you have to spare. This will help us to find the right volunteer role for you and start our recruitment check process.
